REPORT DETAILS

1.00	CALCULATION OF POLITICAL BALANCE
1.01	The Council is required, as soon as practicable, after a change in the composition of political groups to recalculate political balance in accordance with the Local Government and Housing Act 1989 and the Local Government (Committees and Political Groups) Regulations 1990. As a new political group – the Flintshire Independents- was formed on 17th May 2019, and one Member moved political group on 5 th June, it is necessary to review the political balance calculations.
1.02	The basis of the statutory requirement is that Committee seats should be allocated to political groups (so far as is practicable) in the same proportion as those groups have to the total membership of the County Council.

	The allocation of seats on Committees to the political groups must recognise that:- (i) There must be no Committees whereby only one group has all the seats; (ii) Where there is a majority group it is entitled to a majority upon every Committee. (This does not apply where the largest group does not have an overall majority); (iii) The total number of seats allocated to each political group should be (in so far as is practicable) in the same proportion as those groups' strengths upon the full Council; (iv) Each Committee should (so far as is practicable) have the same proportional division between political groups as is represented upon the full Council. Thus if a group holds 25% of the total number of Councillors it should have: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) 25% of the overall number of seats on the Council; and 2) 25% seats on each Committee. These rules are applied in hierarchical order so it is more important to allocate the correct number of seats overall than it is to allocate the correct number of seats on a particular committee. NB: Under the legislation these rules do not apply to either the Cabinet or the Standards Committee.
1.03	The political balance calculation is attached as Appendix A. This is one possible lawful allocation seats and other possible lawful allocations may exist.
1.04	At the Annual Meeting, Council determined which political groups would nominate Overview and Scrutiny Committee chairs for the municipal year. For the avoidance of doubt, a review of the allocation of such chairs would only be reviewed if a group were to be given seats on the Cabinet (where it did not have any before). A review is not triggered by a change in size of political groups nor by the formation of a new political group.
