

FLINTSHIRE COUNTY COUNCIL

Date of Meeting	Thursday 1 st April 2021
Report Subject	Local Government and Elections (Wales) Act 2021 Implementation update
Report Author	Chief Officer (Governance)

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The Local Government and Elections (Wales) Bill was passed by the Senedd on 18th November 2020. It received Royal Assent, and became an act at the end of January 2021.

As previously explained, the Act is a significant piece of legislation which encompasses a number of issues. Implementation of the Act is phased, with some sections in force immediately and others being brought in at a later date.

The Minister for Housing & Local Government, Julie James MS, has written to Council Leaders, confirming that she has now made the Local Government and Elections (Wales) Act 2021 (Commencement No. 1 and Saving Provision) Order 2021.

Details of the commencement orders are shown in the report.

Further updates on the implementation of this legislation will be submitted to Council and the Constitution & Democratic Services Committee from time to time.

Separate reports have been submitted on the changes to the Audit Committee and the Amendment to Adoption leave for Members, both of which are on the agenda for this meeting.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1	Council notes the implementation timetable and acknowledges that further reports will be brought in due course

REPORT DETAILS

1.00	EXPLAINING THE IMPLEMENTATION OF THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT AND ELECTIONS (WALES) ACT 2021
1.01	Provisions of the Local Government and Elections (Wales) Act 2021 will be brought into force by three commencement orders accompanied by other relevant subordinate legislation, during March 2021. These orders will bring the relevant provisions into force on a series of dates between March 2021 and 5 May 2022. In light of the pandemic, the timetable for the scrutiny of the Act by the Senedd was extended. As a consequence the commencement of a number of the Act's provisions has been postponed to 5 May 2022 to correspond with the date of the next Local Government Elections. The Welsh Government consider this approach to be more appropriate and less disruptive to local authorities, especially in light of the ongoing pandemic, rather than subjecting the sector to a number of new requirements within the year preceding the elections .
1.02	The Local Government and Elections (Wales) Act 2021 (Commencement No. 1 and Saving Provision) Order 2021 was made on 4th March and is detailed in paragraph 1. 03, below. <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• The Local Government and Elections (Wales) Act 2021 (Commencement No. 2 and Saving Provisions) Order 2021 is due to be made by 12th March.</li></ul> This is subject to the Senedd approving the Local Government and Elections (Wales) Act 2021 (Consequential Amendments) Regulations 2021 which need to be brought into force in line with this commencement order. The second Commencement Order provides for the bringing into force of Part 6 of the 2021 Act, which provides, amongst other things, for a new performance and governance regime for principal Councils and gives the Welsh Ministers new support and intervention powers, the restructuring provisions within Part 7 of the Act, the information sharing provisions in section 159 and the disapplication of the Local Government (Wales) Measure 2009 (“the 2009 Measure”) to principal Councils and National Park Authorities. <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• The Local Government and Elections (Wales) Act 2021 (Commencement No. 3 and Transitional Provision) Order 2021 is due to be made by 18th March.</li></ul> This is subject to the Senedd approving the Local Government and Elections (Wales) Act 2021 (Consequential Amendments and

	Miscellaneous Provisions) Regulations 2021 which need to be brought into force in line with this commencement order. The third commencement order brings into force provisions in respect of attendance, including remote attendance, at Local Authority meetings and provisions in relation to the arrangements for Local Authority meetings and documents, including requiring electronic publication of certain meeting documents.
