

Proposed conditions

Prevention of Crime and Disorder

1. Incident and Refusals Book- an incident and refusals book (with the pages numbered sequentially) must be kept on the premises and be made available for inspection by responsible authorities. The incident and refusal book must be used to record the following:
 - a) Any incident of violence or disorder on or immediately outside the premises.
 - b) Any incident involving drugs (supply/possession/influence) on the premises.
 - c) Any other crime or criminal activity on the premises.
 - d) Any refusal to serve alcohol to persons who are drunk.
 - e) Any refusal to serve alcohol to under 18's or anyone who appears under 18.
 - f) Any call for police assistance to the premises.
 - g) Any ejection from the premises.
 - h) Any first aid/other care given to a customer.
2. The incident and refusals book record will be made available for inspection on demand by North Wales Police or Local Authority officers on request.

Public safety.

1. The premises to ensure regular collection of drinking vessels from the garden area and risk assessment to be undertaken as to the appropriate nature of drinkware and the use of safety glassware. Non traditional glass vessels.

The Prevention of Public Nuisance.

1. When in use, the beer garden will be supervised at all times and the premises will ensure that sound generated is not excessive such as loud singing or shouting and that any sound would only be considered of a conversational nature. This will also include times when customers from the inside premises are using the facilities of the beer garden and the beer garden bar maybe shut.
2. The premises to record any concerns or complaints raised regarding noise and the behavior of customers using the beer garden. This record is to be kept for a rolling 12 month period and will be made available to the Local Authority and North Wales Police on demand. It is expected that any concerns are dealt with by the premises in a proactive and constructive manner.
